

COACH ADVERT

Do you want to be a part of British Water Polo's National Water Polo Academy?

We have places available for Club Coaches to be involved with the National Water Polo Academy.

The National Academy will be held at Millfield School in Somerset from Sunday 5th to Friday 10th August 2007.

This summer we're hoping to attract 140 athletes to the Academy from the UK's ten Regional Training Centres.

Your week will comprise of:

- Coaching Sessions
- Feedback from National Team Coaches
- The chance to improve your Coaching Skills
- The opportunity to interact with other coaches from around the UK

Accommodation and all meals will be included.

The fee for the week long experience is £75.00

(Payable by cheque only. Cheques made payable to: Amateur Swimming Association)

If you would like to Coach at this years National Academy please complete the attached registration form and return it with your cheque by Friday 1st June 2007.

All National Academy staff applicants will need to complete & pass CRB checks with the ASA before admittance to this event. The organisers reserve the right to refuse entry.
